

Reconciliation Action Plan

Build positive relationships by taking key steps towards reducing unconscious bias and increasing Cultural competence.

IPS assists clients with the development, review and evaluation of Reconciliation Action Plans (RAPs). RAPs provide a framework for organisations to support the national reconciliation movement. RAPs help build a framework for how companies can engage in reconciliation actions and build relationships and opportunities with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australians.

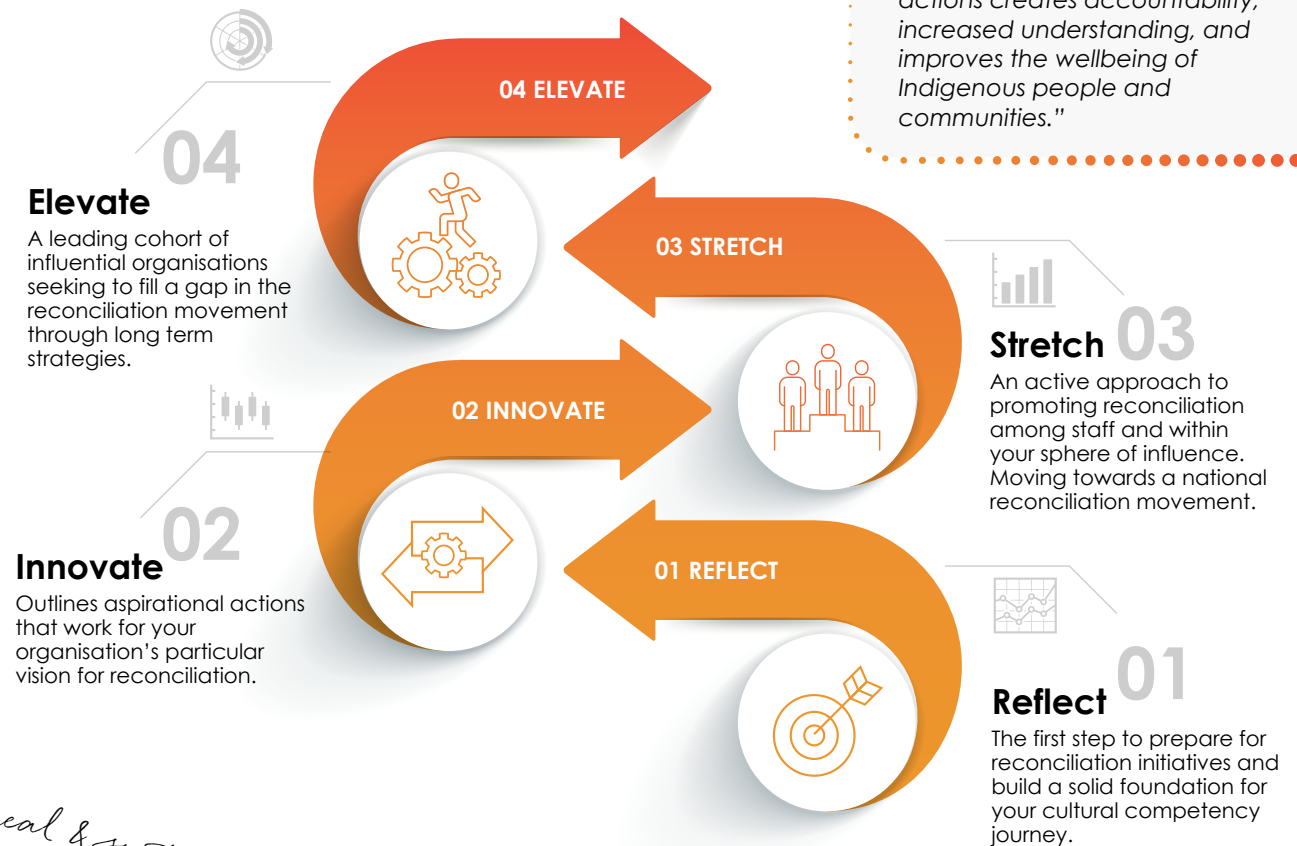

FIVE DIMENSIONS OF RECONCILIATION

Communities can turn their good intentions into action to support the national reconciliation movement through three core pillars: Relationships, Respect and Opportunities. These are underpinned by governance and reporting practices, individuals and organisations.

TYPES OF RAP

The four types of RAP set out the minimum elements required to build strong relationships, respectful workplaces and opportunities with organisations and communities.

Jahna Cedar
IPS Executive Director

"IPS works with clients to create a framework for tangible social change. Implementing RAP actions creates accountability, increased understanding, and improves the wellbeing of Indigenous people and communities."
